Temporary Protected Status Extended for Nicaragua and Honduras

Si desea ver este articulo en Español, por favor haga click aquí

Intro:

Mr. Andrew Cuevas, Esq., is the President of Cuevas & Associates, P.A., and Vantage Property Title Company. Mr. Cuevas has been practicing law since 1993 in the area of Business Immigration Law and Commercial transactions, including commercial and residential real estate transactions and business acquisitions for foreign investors. If you have any questions regarding this article or any other questions, you can contact Mr. Cuevas at (305) 461-9500 or at acuevas@cuevaslaw.com. If you are interested in reading previous newsletters, please visit www.cuevaslaw.com, select the icon for Newsletters, and then choose the area of law you are interested in.

Temporary Protected Status Extended for Nicaragua and Honduras

The Secretary of Homeland Security Jen Johnson has extended Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for eligible nationals of Nicaragua for an additional 18 months, effective Jan. 6, 2015, through July 5, 2016.

Current TPS Nicaragua beneficiarias who seek to extend their TPS must re-register during the 60-day re-registration period that began on Oct. 16, 2014 through Dec. 15, 2014. The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) encourage beneficiaries to re-register as soon as possible during the 60-day re-registration period.

The 18-month extension also allows TPS re-registrants to apply for a new Employment Authorization Document (EAD). Eligible TPS Nicaragua beneficiarias (or persons without nationality who last habitually resided in Nicaragua) who re-register during the 60-day period and request a new EAD will receive one with an expiration date of July 5, 2016.

Cuevas & Associates, P.A. has over 20 years of experience in the preparation and filing of TPS applications and we are ready to provide you with the level of support and attention needed for this process.

This article is solely a partial explanation of all the issues related to the topic of this newsletter, and is not to be considered legal advice. Persons interested in obtaining more information should consult with their legal counsel to obtain explanations of all issues addressed herein